A Vision For Minnesota Football

VIKINGS-GOPHERS FOOTBALL STADIUM ADVANCES AT STATE CAPITOL

During the 2002 Legislative Session, a stadium bill passed the Minnesota Legislature that financed a new baseball stadium and took a significant step forward on a shared football stadium for the Minnesota Vikings and University of Minnesota. While the Vikings are frustrated that a specific financing plan has yet to be adopted, the organization is pleased that a Vikings-Gophers Stadium is one step closer to reality.

Included in the stadium bill that passed were several provisions that acknowledged the need to build a new football stadium in Minnesota. The Legislature set up a "football stadium account" to finance a stadium and allocated $500,000 to advance the stadium design and develop an agreement on how the facility will be managed and used by the two parties. The Legislation also set a March 1, 2003 deadline for enactment of football stadium financing legislation.

A VISION FOR THE FUTURE OF MINNESOTA FOOTBALL

The progress made in 2002 builds on a strong working relationship that the Vikings have forged with the leadership of the University of Minnesota. For two years, the Vikings and the University have worked closely on designing a joint-use facility and on advocating for it at the capitol and with the public. This work has produced an exciting vision for the future of Minnesota football.

BENEFITS FOR FANS AND THE COMMUNITY

This stadium vision promises many important benefits for both football fans and the community. Fans will enjoy a much-improved game day experience that includes easier parking, more tailgating, increased capacity, more seating options, more restrooms and concessions, better sightlines and wider concourses that reduce crowding. This world-class facility will also play host to hundreds of events year-round - including high school and college sports, soccer and many other community events. It will also host future Super Bowls and NCAA Final Fours.

BUILDING ON A SPECIAL TRADITION

This stadium vision brings outdoor football back to the University of Minnesota campus, and preserves the special heritage the Vikings share with football fans, businesses and communities across Minnesota. The Vikings are proud to be a source of excitement that brings people together every season, and we are proud of our commitment to the entire community.

Through the Viking Children's Fund, the Vikings have contributed millions of dollars to children and family causes. Players, coaches and staff also contribute hundreds of volunteer hours to the community each season. We have an opportunity now to build on this valuable partnership.

DEVELOPING A FAIR AND RESPONSIBLE SOLUTION

The Vikings and University will step up efforts during the 2003 Legislative Session, which begins next January 7. It is time to develop a financing solution that works for the University, the Vikings and all Minnesotans. This needs to happen now to keep the Vikings viable in this community.

HOW TO HELP

We are urging our fans and supporters to learn more about the football stadium issue and register their support with elected officials for a fair and responsible solution. For more information about the Vikings stadium campaign – and to find out how you can help – visit www.vikings.com or call toll free 1-866-VIKES01 (1-866-845-3701).

Viking Children's Fund

While there have been many changes in the Vikings since our inception in 1961, one thing has remained constant and that's the support the organization has given to the community. We are all proud of the dynamic growth and development of our Viking Children's Fund. Its mission is to rally the resources of the Vikings, the corporate community and our fans in support of the many needs of children's health, education and family services throughout the Upper Midwest. Since 1978 over $6.2 million has been raised. Much of it has been allocated to research into childhood diseases at the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. The 2002 distribution of $300,000 to the Department of Pediatrics through the VCF was the largest award in the history of the fund.

The VCF's fundraising success is attributed to the strong dedication of coaches, players and staff. In today's world, professional athletes have many options for their free time. The Vikings believe it's significant that so many Viking players choose to be out in the community making a difference.

Through the Children's Fund and our other community efforts, the Vikings will continue to weave themselves into the fabric of life throughout the great state of Minnesota. On the following pages you will learn about the programs the Viking family supports. The Vikings are proud of these accomplishments and proud to be the "Minnesota" Vikings.

Vikings Purple Community Pride

THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS "ON THE FIELD AND IN THE COMMUNITY- YOUR SPECIAL TEAM"

The Minnesota Vikings are more than a football team. The coaches, players and staff are your neighbors. Their wives or husbands may be your co-workers. Their children attend school with your children. The Vikings are a part of our community. Many schools, hospital charities and civic groups have been impacted by player involvement, staff participation and family volunteerism.

The Vikings organization is your neighbor too, as a corporate citizen actively involved in policy and service to Minnesota. The Vikings community relations department and Viking Children's Fund handle a broad range of requests including player appearances, in-kind donations, partnering with non-profit groups on fundraisers, the production of public service announcements and team philanthropy. Since its inception in 1978, the VCF has donated more than $3.5 million to the University of Minnesota Department of Pediatrics. In addition, the VCF has maintained a commitment to youth and families by distributing another $2.7 million toward youth development, family services and education support- a total of $6.2 million given back to our community.

Red McCombs

OWNER

In his first four seasons as the owner of the Minnesota Vikings, Red McCombs' Vikings have posted more wins (41) than any other team in the National Football League. McCombs also has the highest career winning percentage (.640, 41-23) of any owner in the NFL. On January 10, 2002, McCombs named Mike Tice as the sixth head coach in the club's 42-year history.

In 2001, the Vikings attracted a record 513,344 fans (64,168 avg.) to the Metrodome during the regular season to break their season attendance record for the fourth straight season. His first three seasons as owner (1998-2000) marked the first time since 1974-76 that the Vikings have hosted a playoff game in three straight seasons.

In McCombs' magical first season with the Vikings in 1998, the club set new records on the field by going 15-1. McCombs restored "Purple Pride" to the community and to the football team as he watched the team advance to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987. The Metrodome became the loudest stadium in the NFL. McCombs received FOX's Terry Bradshaw Award as the Owner of the Year and he also became the first owner to receive a turkey leg from John Madden following the Thanksgiving Day victory over the Cowboys (11/26/98) in his native state. Heading into the 2002 season the Vikings have sold out 44 consecutive games.

McCombs enters his fifth season in the NFL with a wealth of previous successful experiences in the sports field. McCombs brought the Spurs from Dallas to San Antonio in 1972 and sold his interests in the team to his partners in 1982 and purchased the Denver Nuggets. He sold the Nuggets in 1986. In 1988 McCombs bought all the partners' interests in the San Antonio Spurs and became the sole owner along with Gary Woods.

In McCombs' final four seasons as the owner of the Spurs the team went 207-121 (.631) and finished first twice and second twice in the Midwest Division of the NBA's Western Conference. The team had the biggest turnaround in NBA history between two seasons. The club's attendance figures nearly doubled in his five seasons with the club (8,462 in the season before he arrived in 1987-88 vs. 16,057 in a sold out situation in his final season in 1992-93). In his final season with the Nuggets in 1984-85 the club finished 52-30 (.634) and advanced to the Western Conference Finals. McCombs got his first taste of sports ownership in 1951 with midget auto racing on a quarter-mile track. In 1953 he owned the Corpus Christi Clippers of the Class B Big State Baseball League.

McCombs was born in Spur, Texas in 1927. He attended Southwestern University and played football there before enrolling in law school at the University of Texas at Austin. McCombs moved to Corpus Christi to enter into the automobile industry in 1950 and has been involved in the field ever since. McCombs was awarded his first new vehicle franchise and became the youngest Edsel dealer in the United States in 1957 at age 30. In 1958 he relocated to San Antonio where he became successively General Manager, Partner and sole owner of Red McCombs Ford. In 1996, McCombs was inducted into the Automotive Hall of Fame.

McCombs and an associate, Lowry Mays, formed Clear Channel Communications in 1972. Today Clear Channel is the world's largest outdoor advertising company with operations in 36 countries and the world's largest radio station owner with over 1,100 stations including the Vikings flagship station KFAN in the Twin Cities. Clear Channel also owns or operates 22 television stations. McCombs is also the sole owner of McCombs Energy and Oil Explorative Company headquartered in Houston, Texas.

McCombs' leadership roles include Chairman of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce and the United Way. He also served leadership roles in many national, state and local organizations including San Antonio's World Fair, HemisFair. McCombs has served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Southwestern University where he has been honored as a Distinguished Alumnus and is past Chairman of the Board of University of Texas M. D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston. He has been honored with numerous recognitions including the San Antonio Citizenship Award and induction into the San Antonio Business Hall of Fame. McCombs was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and was named Minnesota Business and Opportunities Magazine Man of the Year.

McCombs has also received many sports related awards including induction into the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame and most recently he was selected as the Gold Medal Honoree for 2001 by The National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. McCombs' hobbies include collecting Western historical artifacts. McCombs has been an active booster of the University of Texas for many years and served as President of the Texas Longhorn Club. He and his wife, Charline, made the largest gifts to the University of Texas' Women's Athletic Department and their alma mater, Southwestern University. McCombs donated $50 million to the University of Texas Business School in the spring of 2000, which the University has now named the Red McCombs School of Business.

McCombs initiated the Minnesota High School and College Coach of the Year Awards during the 2000 season.

Red and Charline make numerous visits to local charities and schools in the Twin Cities with players. They have also supported the University of Minnesota Women's Athletics Department. McCombs married the former Charline Hamblin in Corpus Christi, Texas in 1950. The couple and their three daughters, Lynda, Marsha, Connie, and eight grandchildren reside in San Antonio.

Charline McCombs
OWNER

Charline Hamblin McCombs is a lady of passions with her latest being the Minnesota Vikings. Every Viking player and coach is a big part of her daily life. Charline has stayed very active with the Vikings organization and in the Twin Cities community in her four-year ownership. While in the Twin Cities, Charline has visited the University of Minnesota Children's Hospital and the Ronald McDonald House with numerous Vikings players and staff members. She has been involved in many community activities including reading stories at local elementary schools and ringing the bell for the Salvation Army over the holidays. Charline hosts an annual Women's luncheon for women staff members and players, coaches and staff members' wives. In 1999, she co-hosted the University of Minnesota's "Texas Tuxedo" event that raised over $300,000 for the Women's Athletic Department. On October 7, 1999, Charline was honored with the Trefoil Award from the Girl Scouts of America. She received the game ball following the Vikings 27-17 victory over the Dallas Cowboys (11/8/99). In 2000 Charline had members from the Boys and Girls Club attend a game with the McCombs family.

Charline's other passions include the arts, education and her family. Charline's gift for minority women to Southwestern University in Georgetown, Texas (her alma mater) kicked off a statewide program. She is involved as a mentor at a San Antonio elementary school with her husband, Red, and stays actively involved with her eight grandchildren's school and extracurricular activities. Charline is very proud of her "Mother of the Year" award from the ADVANCE organization. She has also received a number of other awards: Boystown "Spirit of Youth" Award, University of Texas School of Architecture and Design Award (with Joci Strauss), National Society of Fundraising Executives "Outstanding Philanthropist Award", Fashion Group International honoree, The Freedom of Information Foundation "Civic Virtue" Award and Non-Profit Resource Center "Spirit of Philanthropy" Award. Charline has also received an honorary Doctorate of Humanities from Southwestern University. She continues to serve on a number of boards in a variety of capacities.

Charline has been recognized by several local, state and national programs for her work in philanthropy and service. Her concern with promoting the arts in San Antonio included San Antonio's Theater Arts District being totally revitalized and restored, paving the way for future development downtown. She serves on the Board of Directors of Las Casas Foundation, which is dedicated to restoring and preserving downtown San Antonio treasures, i.e., The Majestic Theater and The Empire Theater, which carries her name. She has long been involved in cancer research and awareness programs, having served on the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Board. Charline is currently on their National Advisory Board. She served locally on the Board of the Cancer Center Council, which is the fund raising, supportive arm of the Cancer Therapy and Research Center. Charline has had a longtime, ongoing relationship with the American Heart Association, having received their coveted Heart of Gold Award. Charline is a past member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Chapter of Friends of Ronald McDonald. Charline is currently serving on the Advisory Board of that organization. Charline is on the Board of Directors of the McNay Art Museum and serves on the Art Committee and the Education Committee. Charline is a Board member and long-time supporter of the Texas Arts and Crafts Festival, hosted annually in Kerrville, TX.

Charline married Red McCombs in Corpus Christi, Texas in 1950. In 2000 the couple celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The couple and their three daughters, Lynda, Marsha, Connie and eight grandchildren, Carson, Charles, Sita, Anna, Ian, Chloe, Joseph and Easton reside in San Antonio.

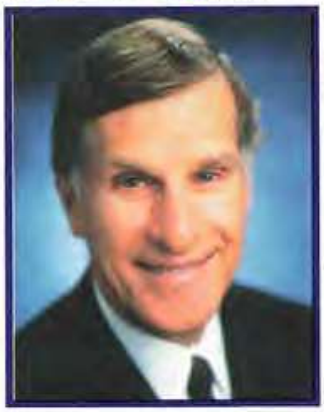
Gary Woods
PRESIDENT



In just four seasons with the Vikings, Gary Woods has guided the club in new directions that were once thought impossible. For the fourth straight season in 2001 Minnesota broke its all-time attendance record. In 2001, the Vikings attracted a record breaking 513,344 fans (64,168 avg.) to the Metrodome during the regular season. Under the direction of Woods, the team also had its third straight record year for corporate sponsorships, suite sales and novelty sales. On the field, no other team has more wins over the last four season than the Vikings 41 victories. During Woods' tenure, the team has advanced to the playoffs three times, been in the NFC Championship Game twice, and set numerous team and individual records.

For the 1999 season, Minnesota increased its season ticket base by over 16,000 seats (59,500 in '99 vs. 43,472 in '98). The Vikings have sold out all 44 games (pre, regular, post-season) since Woods has been associated with the team. The Vikings currently have a waiting list for season tickets. In his first season with the Vikings in 1998 the team set a club record with a 15-1 record and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987. The 1998-2000 seasons were the best three-season stretch (36 wins) in the 41-year history of the franchise. Those three seasons also marked only the third time in team history that the Vikings have hosted a playoff game in three consecutive seasons.

Woods was named to his current position July 28, 1998 when the National Football League unanimously approved the new ownership of the Vikings. He has been associated with Vikings owner Red McCombs for the last 24 years.

Since 1979 Woods has been the President of McCombs Enterprises, the holding entity for the McCombs family investments. The company headquarters is based in San Antonio and includes automobile dealerships, oil and gas exploration, real estate investments, broadcasting, ranching and others.

Woods is involved in numerous professional organizations and societies and regularly attends seminars in those disciplines as a student and an instructor. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of Ilex Oncology Inc., the Cancer Therapy and Research Center, and the Argonaut Group.

Mike Tice

HEAD COACH

Mike Tice became the sixth head coach in the Minnesota Vikings' 42-year history on January 10, 2002. Tice has been associated with the team since 1992. He played tight end from 1992-93 and 1995, coached the tight ends in 1996 and the offensive line from 1997-2001. Tice added the title of Assistant Head Coach for the 2001 season. He also was made the interim head coach for the team's regular season finale vs. the Baltimore Ravens. Tice is the first person to play and be the head coach for the Vikings.

In his last 18 years being associated with the NFL, Tice has only had two losing seasons. In five seasons coaching the Vikings offensive line, Mike Tice has guided five different players (Matt Birk, Jeff Christy, Randall McDaniel, Todd Steussie, Korey Stringer) to 10 Pro Bowl appearances. In his six seasons coaching with the Vikings, the team has compiled a 59-37 (.615) record and has made the playoffs in five-of-the-six seasons.

In 2001, the offensive line had five different starting lineups due to injury. Center Matt Birk made the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year. Rookie running back Michael Bennett's 682 yards rushing were the third most in team history by a Vikings rookie.

In 2000, Tice oversaw the development of Birk at the center position. Prior to the 2000 season Birk had never started a game and by the end of the year he was named to the Pro Bowl. Also named to the Pro Bowl for the first time was right tackle Stringer. The offensive line helped Robert Smith break numerous team records including most rushing yards in a season (1,521) and most 100-yard games in a season (8). Smith also became the first Vikings running back to have four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The offensive line gave Daunte Culpepper enough time to throw for 3,937 yards and 33 touchdowns in his first year at the helm. Culpepper also set team season records for a quarterback for rushing yards (470) and rushing touchdowns (7). The Vikings established an NFL record by recording 30 straight games from 1999-2000 with over 300 yards of total offense, snapping a record held by the 1949-51 Los Angeles Rams.

In 1999, the offensive line made room for Smith to break a team mark for rushing yards (140) in a playoff game (vs. Dallas 1/9/00). Leroy Hoard led the club in rushing touchdowns with a career-high 10. With Hoard's 555 yards rushing, it was the first time since 1991 the Vikings had two backs go over the 500-yard mark. The Vikings offense finished the 1999 campaign third in the NFL.

In '98, the offensive line paved the way for numerous NFL and Vikings records, including a League record for points scored in a season (556), and also set an NFL record for touchdown passes (41). The '98 team set Vikings records for total yards (6,264) and fewest sacks allowed in a 16-game season (25). The offensive line cleared the way for Robert Smith to top the 1,000-yard mark for the second consecutive season with 1,187 yards on the ground. The Vikings rushed for over 100 yards in 13-of-the-18 games, including playoffs, and broke the 150-yard barrier in five contests. Three of the five starting offensive linemen (Steussie, Christy, McDaniel) in the 1999 Pro Bowl were Vikings. They became the first Vikings trio of offensive linemen ever selected to be selected to the Pro Bowl, let alone to start in the game.

In his first year coaching the offensive line in '97, Tice guided an offensive line that sent two starters to the '98 Pro Bowl, McDaniel and Steussie. The offensive line also enabled Smith to break the team record at the time for rushing yards in a season with 1,266. The Vikings offensive line was a big factor in the squad gaining a first down on 18-of-19 carries on third or fourth down with less than three yards to go in '97. In 10-of-the-16 games, the team rushed for over 100 yards. Tice's offensive line also finished third in the NFC in sacks per pass play (17.4 attempts per sack).

In '96, in addition to his duties as the Vikings tight ends coach, Tice conducted some drills with the offensive tackles during practices. Tice was instrumental in '96 in the development of rookie tight end Hunter Goodwin, who started the season's last six games when Minnesota went 4-2 to capture a playoff berth.

During his 14 seasons in the National Football League not only did Tice catch 107 passes for 894 yards and 11 touchdowns, but he helped block for backs that rushed for over 1,000 yards in a season five times, including '92, when Terry Allen set a then Vikings season record with 1,201 yards, and '83, when Seattle's Curt Warner led the AFC with 1,449 yards.

The 6-foot, 8-inch Tice joined Minnesota's coaching staff in '96 after playing three seasons with the Vikings (1992-93, 1995), 10 years with Seattle (1981-88, 1990-91) and a season (1989) with Washington. He started in 109-of-the-177 NFL games he played.

In '95 Tice re-signed with the Vikings on December 7 after injuries depleted the team's tight end corps. He played in the final three games, including a start in the regular-season finale at Cincinnati (12/24), where he caught three passes for 22 yards. Tice originally retired following the '93 season. Tice started 11 games in '93, when he caught six passes for 39 yards. In '92, Tice caught a career-long 34-yard touchdown pass in the final regular-season game against Green Bay (12/27).

With Seattle in '91, Tice caught a career-high four touchdown passes to become the first tight end in Seahawks history to lead the team in scoring receptions. In '90, Tice was released by Washington on the final cut of preseason then signed by Seattle on November 28. In '89, Tice signed with the Redskins as a Plan B free agent after catching 58 passes and starting 43-of-44 games for Seattle between '86 and '88. He posted a career-high 29 receptions for 244 yards in 16 starts in '88. In only eight starts in '84, Tice caught three touchdown passes to set a Seattle season record for scoring receptions by a tight end. In '83, Tice helped the Seahawks advance to the AFC Championship Game, their best finish ever. Originally signed as a free agent quarterback by Seattle in '81, Tice switched to tight end his rookie year.

As a two-year starter at quarterback at Maryland, Tice completed 71-of-140 passes for 928 yards with five touchdowns as a senior in '80. He threw for 896 yards and five touchdowns as a junior. When Tice was a senior the backup quarterback was future NFL All-Pro Boomer Esiason.

Michael Peter Tice was born in Bayshore, N.Y. (2/2/59) and attended Central Islip High School in Long Island. He lettered in football, basketball and lacrosse. He was the recipient of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in 1987. His brother, John, was a tight end at Maryland and played for the New Orleans Saints from 1983-92. John is currently the Vikings' tight end/assistant offensive line coach, making Mike and John the first brothers to ever coach with the Vikings. Mike and wife Diane have two children, Adrienne (8/4/87) and Nathan (7/28/89).

Scott Linehan

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

After serving 14 years as a collegiate coach Scott Linehan will begin his first season coaching in the NFL as the Vikings offensive coordinator. The 38-year-old Linehan spent the past three seasons as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Louisville.

While 2002 marks his first season coaching in the NFL, Linehan has had experience working with NFL-caliber quarterbacks. Three of his proteges, Louisville's Chris Redman, Washington's Brock Huard and Idaho's Doug Nussmeier, have gone on to be drafted by NFL teams.

During his tenure at Louisville, the Cardinals went to three straight bowl games, became the first team to win consecutive Conference USA championships (2000 & 2001) and had a Louisville quarterback named as the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year in each season (Dave Ragone – 2000 & 2001; Chris Redman – 1999).

In his first season with the Cardinals, Linehan helped Redman attain the NCAA career record for passes attempted (1679) and completed (1031). Redman also finished third all-time in career passing yards with 12,541 and won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award in 1999. Ragone would benefit from Linehan's coaching in 2000 and 2001 as he passed for more than 2600 yards and 23 touchdowns both seasons.

Louisville posted three of the top six passing seasons in school history under Linehan's direction and had three of the top four single-season receiving marks. In his three years at Louisville, the Cardinals produced school records for wins in a season with 11 in 2001, and for wins in a two (20) and three-year (27) span. Linehan led Louisville to a 28-10 victory over BYU in the 2001 Liberty Bowl that helped propel the Cardinals to a top 20 finish in both polls to end the season.

Linehan was a member of John L. Smith's coaching staff during his three years at Louisville. He was reunited with Smith at Louisville in 1999 after serving on Smith's coaching staff during two tenures at Idaho (1989-90 & 1992-93). Linehan's ties to Smith go back to his playing days at Idaho where he lettered as a quarterback while Smith was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator.

Prior to his tenure at Louisville, Linehan coached at the University of Washington from 1994-98. He was the Huskies offensive coordinator his final three seasons and had additional duties as quarterbacks coach in 1998 and receivers coach from 1994-97. Brock Huard joined the list of quarterbacks that Linehan has developed as he set career records at Washington for passing yards (5742) and touchdown passes (91). During Linehan's five seasons with the Huskies the team advanced to four bowl games.

Linehan broke into the coaching ranks as an assistant at his alma mater, Idaho, in 1988. From 1988-90 he worked as receivers coach and from 1992-93 he served as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. Linehan tutored standout quarterback Doug Nussmeier during his second stint with the Vandals and helped Nussmeier earn several accolades between 1992-93. Nussmeier was the recipient of the 1993 Walter Payton Award, which recognizes the NCAA Division I-AA Player of the Year, and was a unanimous Division I-AA All-American as a senior after throwing for a career-high 33 TDs and just five interceptions. He was named Big Sky Player of the Year in 1992 by leading the conference in passing and total offense. Under Linehan, Nussmeier established career records at Idaho for passing yards (10,824), total offense (12,027) and touchdown passes (91).

In his two seasons as offensive coordinator, Linehan helped guide the Vandals to a 20-6 record. Idaho led the nation in scoring (47.5 points per game) and total offense (532 yards per game) in 1993.

Linehan spent the 1991 season as the quarterbacks coach at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas before returning to his alma mater in 1992.

Linehan played quarterback at Idaho from 1982-86, guiding the Dennis Erickson-coached Vandals to a Big Sky Conference championship in 1985 and Division I-AA playoff appearances in 1984, '85 and '86. He finished his playing career with a 32-16 record as a starter and was 547-of-947 passing for 7018 yards. Linehan signed as a rookie free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in 1987 before a shoulder injury ended his playing career.

Born in Sunnyside, WA, (9/17/63) Linehan is married to the former Kristen Browitt. They are parents of three sons – Matthew (7) and Michael (5) and Marcus (2).

Willie Shaw
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Willie Shaw enters his 15th season in the National Football League as the Vikings defensive coordinator/secondary coach. The 2002 season marks Shaw's fourth with the Vikings. From '92-93, Shaw coached the secondary and helped guide the Vikings to two straight playoff appearances. Last season he returned to Minnesota for his second stint with the team as assistant head coach/defensive backs coach.

A 33-year coaching veteran, Shaw has coached defense on seven different NFL teams, as well as five college teams. Viewed by his coaching peers and players as an excellent teacher, strong communicator and highly intense individual, Shaw was head coach Mike Tice's first choice to head the Vikings 2002 defensive charge.

Shaw returned to Minnesota in 2001, after spending the 2000 season as assistant head coach/defensive backs coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. There he was in charge of a secondary which included two-time Pro Bowl cornerback James Hasty.

Prior to his time in Kansas City, Shaw was instrumental in the revival of the Oakland Raiders defense. In '97, the Raiders ranked 30th in total defense (382.2 yards per game). In his first season as the team's defensive coordinator in '98, Shaw coached the Raiders to the league's fifth-best total defense, allowing just 284.4 yards per game. In only one year, the Raiders showed an improvement of 97.8 yards per game. In '99, the Raiders improvement continued, ranking in the top half of the league in every major defensive category.

Before joining the Raiders, in '97 Shaw was in charge of the defensive backs for the New Orleans Saints. That year, the Saints finished the season ranked sixth in the league in both total and passing defense. From '95-96, Shaw served as the defensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams and in '94 coached the San Diego Charger defensive backs all the way to Super Bowl XXIX.

From '89-93, Shaw coached under Vikings former head coach Dennis Green – first in the college ranks at Stanford, then at the pro level in Minnesota. In '90, Shaw's second coaching stint at Stanford, the Cardinal defeated top-ranked Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind. The next year, the team enjoyed its longest winning streak (7) since '51, most PAC 10 victories since '70, and first bowl appearance since '86. During Shaw's two-year term with the Vikings ('92-93), the team's secondary produced impressive results. In '92, Minnesota led the NFL in interceptions with 28 and tied for second with 24 in '93. Of the eight players that intercepted five or more passes in '92, three were Vikings. That same year, first-year starters in the secondary Audray McMillan and Todd Scott made the Pro Bowl. In '93, the Vikings finished the season as the NFL's top-ranked defense.

Shaw spent his first four years in the NFL with the Detroit Lions ('85-88). He coached the secondary for three years before taking over the team's outside linebackers in '88. His first three college coaching assignments came in California at San Diego College ('70-73), Stanford ('74-76) and Long Beach State ('77-78). He then went on to coach at Oregon in '79 and Arizona State from '80-84 before stepping into the NFL ranks.

Born in Glenmora, LA (1/11/44), Shaw earned All-America honors as a senior defensive back and captain at the University of New Mexico before transferring to San Diego State. He earned his undergraduate degree in physical education and his master's degree in education from SDSU. Willie and wife Gay have three children – Tawnya, Eric and David. David lettered in football, basketball and track at Stanford. He spent four years as an assistant with the Oakland Raiders, three as an offensive assistant and one as quarterbacks coach. Currently, he is the quarterbacks/receivers coach for the Baltimore Ravens.

COORDINATED EFFORT

Willie Shaw returns to the Vikings in 2002 as Defensive Coordinator/Secondary Coach. Shaw's last stint as a Defensive Coordinator was in 1998 with the Oakland Raiders, who climbed from being ranked #30 in the NFL in total defense in 1997 to #5 in 1998 under Shaw's direction.

In 1995 and '96 Shaw served as Defensive Coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. In 1996 Shaw helped CB Keith Lyle post 9 interceptions, the most for a Ram since 1976. The Rams notched 48 interceptions over the two-year span.

In 1992 as the Vikings defensive backs coach, Shaw tutored first-year starters CB Audray McMillian and S Todd Scott to the Pro Bowl, the last time that a pair of players from the Vikings secondary each earned berths in the Pro Bowl.

George O'Leary

ASST. HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE

George O'Leary comes to the Minnesota Vikings after a very successful tenure as the head coach at Georgia Tech. O'Leary will coach the defensive line and also is the assistant head coach. O'Leary, a native of Central Islip, NY, was Vikings Head Coach Mike Tice's high school football coach at Central Islip High.

O'Leary was the head coach at Georgia Tech from 1994-2001 and amassed a 52-33 record while leading the Yellow Jackets to Bowl appearances the last five seasons. The five Bowl appearances were the second most in school history and the most since Bobby Dodd led the Yellow Jackets to six straight Bowls from 1951-56. Over the last four seasons he led the team to a 34-14 record (.708). O'Leary returned to Georgia Tech in 1994 as the team's defensive coordinator and took over responsibilities as the head coach for the final three games of the season. He was named the winner of the 2000 Bobby Dodd Award as the National Coach of the Year and was named the Atlantic Coast Conference's top coach in 1998 and 2000. O'Leary left Georgia Tech and became the head coach at Notre Dame in December 2001.

In 2001 O'Leary led Georgia Tech to a 7-5 record and a berth in the new Seattle Bowl. From 1998-2000 he led the Yellow Jackets to a 27-9 record including two second place finishes and a tie for the ACC title in 1998. Quarterback Joe Hamilton (1996-99) finished as the runner-up for the Heismann Trophy during his senior season (1999).

O'Leary served as the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers in 1992 and '93. In 1992 the defense had 51 sacks, which at the time was the fourth best in team history. The Chargers won the AFC West in 1992 with an 11-5 record.

O'Leary's first stint at Georgia Tech came from 1987-91 as the defensive coordinator/defensive line coach. The team finished 11-0-1 in 1990 and won the National Championship. Current Vikings linebacker coach Brian Baker was also on the Yellow Jackets coaching staff at the time.

O'Leary received his first coaching job at the collegiate level at Syracuse (1980-86). He coached the defensive line and also was the assistant head coach his final two seasons.

O'Leary started his coaching career at the high school level. From 1968-76 he coached at Central Islip (NY) High School (1975-76 as head coach) before taking over as the head coach at Liverpool High School (NY). He posted 37-8-1 record in five seasons including a perfect 10-0 season in 1979.

O'Leary also coached Vikings tight ends/assistant offensive line coach John Tice at Central Islip High School and former NFL defensive lineman Tim Green, who is now a FOX broadcaster and renowned novelist at Liverpool High School and at Syracuse.

George Joseph O'Leary was born in Central Islip, NY and attended Central Islip High School. He attended the University of New Hampshire and earned his degree in physical education. George and his wife, Sharon, have two daughters, Chris and Trish, and two sons, Tim and Marty. George and Sharon reside in Eden Prairie, MN.

COACHING CONNECTIONS

George O'Leary was Head Coach at Central Islip High School when brothers Mike and John Tice played for the team in the 1970s. After moving on to the collegiate ranks, O'Leary worked on the defensive coaching staff at George Tech with current Vikings linebackers coach Brian Baker.

O'Leary returns to the NFL in 2002 to coach the Vikings defensive line, a position he held with the San Diego Chargers in 1992 and '93. While with the Chargers, O'Leary helped turn a team that went 4-12 in 1991 into an 11-5 club that won the AFC West and made the first playoff appearance for the franchise since 1983. The Chargers hosted Kansas City in 1992 Wild Card Playoff action and O'Leary's troops responded, shutting out the Chiefs 17-0. The game was the first AFC playoff shutout since 12/26/70 when Baltimore shut out Cincinnati 17-0. The game still remains one of only seven shutouts in AFC playoff history.

Charlie Baggett

WIDE RECEIVERS

Charlie Baggett enters his third season with the Vikings as the wide receivers coach in 2002 and brings with him 25 years of offensive coaching experience at both the college and pro levels.

In 2001, Baggett coached Randy Moss, who had a career-high 82 catches, 1,233 yards receiving and his fourth straight season with 10 or more touchdowns (he had 10). Cris Carter had 73 catches for 871 yards. It was his ninth consecutive season with 70-or-more receptions.

In his first season with the club in 2000, Baggett had the pleasure of coaching receivers Carter and Moss. Both players were selected to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Moss set a team record for receiving yards (1,437) in a season and led the NFL in touchdown receptions (15). Moss also was the only Viking named to the Associated Press All-Pro Team.

Baggett spent the 1999 season as the wide receivers coach for the Green Bay Packers, where he coached two receivers over the 1,000-yard mark (Antonio Freeman-1,074 and Bill Schroeder-1,051). Both Freeman and Schroeder had 74 catches. The Packers finished seventh in the NFL in passing.

Prior to coaching at Green Bay, Baggett enjoyed his second stint at Michigan State, where he coached from 1995-98, serving as associate head coach and also tutoring the wide receivers under Head Coach Nick Saban. Both Derrick Mason and Plaxico Burress were named All-Big Ten receivers during Baggett's tenure. Baggett also coached Muhsin Muhammed at MSU, who led the NFC in receptions for the Carolina Panthers in 1999.

Baggett's first coaching position in the NFL was with the Houston Oilers (1993-94) as wide receivers coach. In '93 three of his wide receivers (Webster Slaughter, Ernest Givins and Haywood Jeffires) ranked among the AFC's top 12 receivers. The Oilers won the AFC Central in '93 with a 12-4 record. The 12 wins were a then franchise record.

Prior to his work at Houston, Baggett enjoyed 10 seasons at Michigan State (1983-92) under then Head Coach George Perles, overseeing wide receivers for seven years and running backs for three. Among the future NFL players he coached at State were All-Americans Lorenzo White and Andre Rison, in addition to Mark Ingram and Courtney Hawkins. Baggett coached nine bowl teams altogether during his two stints at Michigan State. He was part of the 1987 Spartan staff that defeated USC in the Rose Bowl 20-17.

Baggett started his coaching career at Bowling Green, where he worked from 1977 to 1980, and then moved on to Minnesota (1980-81) where he worked under Joe Salem before landing on campus in East Lansing.

A one-time player himself for the Spartans, Baggett was a three-year starter (1973-75) at quarterback and graduated as the school's all-time leader in total offense with 2,334 yards, earning All-Big Ten Conference honors from the Chicago Tribune as a junior after posting 1,713 total yards and 21 touchdowns (11 rushing, 10 passing). He earned a B.S. degree in food management from Michigan State in 1975. Baggett had a brief stint with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Canadian Football League before embarking on his coaching career. Baggett's roommate at Michigan State was former Vikings assistant coach and current Notre Dame Head Coach Tyrone Willingham.

Brian Baker

LINEBACKERS

Brian Baker enters his second season with the Vikings in 2002 as the linebackers coach, after spending the 2001 season coaching the defensive line. Despite being only 39 years old, Baker has six years of coaching experience in the NFL as well as 12 years of experience at the college level.

Last season, under the guidance of Baker, second year starter Chris Hovan made the move from nose tackle to under tackle and tripled his sack total in one year. Hovan led the team in sacks with 6.0 and was second in quarterback hurries with 21. Baker helped guide veteran defensive end Lance Johnstone to a team best in quarterback hurries (22) in addition to 5.5 sacks. Baker has been instrumental in the development of third year defensive end Talance Sawyer, who tied for third on the team in total tackles with 74 in '01. Sawyer also recorded his first career interception in the 2001 opener vs. Caroina (9/9/01).

DEFENSIVE DYNAMOS

During Brian Baker's coaching stints with three NFL teams, San Diego, Detroit and Minnesota, his players have responded with top performances. A year later in Detroit, DE Robert Porcher went to the Pro Bowl. In 1999, Lions linemen Luther Elliss and Porcher were selected to the Pro Bowl and Elliss returned to Honolulu in 2000.

In 1999 Porcher notched a career-high 15 sacks and moved into 2nd place in the Lions record book for single-season sacks, trailing only Al Baker's 23 in 1978.

Baker's aggressive pressuring scheme caused 87 quarterback hurries in '01, nearly doubling the 46 recorded in '00. Also, under Baker the Vikings defensive line tallied 16 passes defensed, more than the previous two seasons combined.

The position switch to linebackers coach this season reunites Baker with his longtime colleague George O'Leary, who will head the Vikings defensive line. Baker spent seven (1987-91; 94-95) of his nine years (1987-95) at Georgia Tech coaching defense alongside O'Leary. O'Leary, named head coach of the Rambling Wreck in 1994, hired Baker as his outside linebackers coach that year and promoted him to defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach in '95. The Yellow Jackets defense ranked fourth in the nation against the run in '95.

Baker joined the Vikings in 2001 after spending four years as the defensive line coach for the Detroit Lions. While in Detroit, he was in charge of one of the deepest defensive line rotations in the NFL. Interior linemen Luther Elliss and James Jones anchored the inside combining for 111 tackles in '00 and Elliss made the Pro Bowl for the second consecutive year. In '99, Jones' first year with the Lions, he led the defensive linemen with 70 tackles and set his career-high with seven sacks. Baker was also key in the development of two-time Pro Bowl left end Robert Porcher, who led the Lions with eight sacks in '00, boosting his career total to 47.

In 1999, Porcher notched 15 sacks and joined Elliss in the Pro Bowl. The 15 sacks rank 2nd all-time in Detroit history for a season, trailing only Al Baker's 23 in 1978.

The Lions sack totals also increased under Baker from '96-00. After collecting only 32 sacks as a team in his first season in '96, in Baker's second year the defensive linemen alone recorded 31.5 sacks. The front four produced 25 sacks in '98 and topped off at 39.5 in '99.

During his four years in Detroit, Baker coached under Lions former head coach Bobby Ross. The two were first introduced in 1983, when Baker played for Ross at the University of Maryland. Following his college career, Baker coached under Ross for 12 of his first 17 years at the college and professional levels. His first NFL coaching assignment came in 1996 at the age of 33, as the defensive line coach for the San Diego Chargers under Ross.

Baker began his coaching career at the University of Maryland from '84-85 as the outside linebackers coach and spent the '86 season in charge of the fullbacks at Army. For the next nine years (1987-95) Baker served as a defensive coach at Georgia Tech.

An active member of the American Football Coaches Association (A.F.C.A), Baker was the first assistant coach to serve on the group's board of trustees. From '92-95, he also served as the Chairman of the Assistant Coaches Committee for the A.F.C.A.

Baker was a three-year letterman at outside linebacker for the University of Maryland from '81-83. He played under Terrapins head coach Bobby Ross for two seasons ('82-83). In '82, the team had a 31-point scoring average and finished the season with a trip to the inaugural Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, HI. In '83, Maryland was undefeated in the ACC and claimed its first conference title since 1976. That year the Terrapins were invited to the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando, FL.

Born in Baltimore, MD (6/20/62), Baker played running back, outside linebacker and ran track for the Baltimore Polytechnic Institute High School Engineers in Baltimore. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from the University of Maryland in 1985. He is married to the former Nevada Tinsley of Manhattan, NY, who earned All-America honors in track and field while attending the University of Virginia. The Bakers have three daughters, Nicole, Jade and Jasmine and are also joined in their household by a niece, Norell Jackson.

Steve Loney joins the Vikings in 2002 as offensive line coach, after 26 years of offensive coaching experience at both the college and pro levels. Loney comes to Minnesota after his second coaching stint at his alma mater Iowa State, in which he played a key role in the Cyclones offensive attack as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under head coach Dan McCarney.

A native of Marshalltown, IA, Loney was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Iowa State for a total of five years – from '95-97 and again from '00-01. Most recently, Loney's offenses were key in Iowa State's back-to-back bowl seasons in '00-01. Last season, the Cyclones offense averaged 423.1 yards per game and 26.9 points per game, enough to vault them to the 2001 Mainstay Independence Bowl. The Cyclones 2000 Insight.com Bowl unit averaged 424.4 yards per game, the third-best total in school history. Under Loney, the Cyclones offense produced a 1,000-yard rusher and 2,000-yard passer in '00 and '01 respectively. The offensive line was solid under Loney, allowing just seven sacks in '00, the second lowest sack total nationally.

Loney is not a newcomer to the state of Minnesota. From '98-99 he served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Minnesota under head coach Glen Mason. In '99, the Golden Gophers finished second in the Big Ten and 11th in the nation in rushing offense. Minnesota averaged 415.4 offensive yards per

John Tice

TIGHT ENDS/ASST. OFFENSIVE LINE

John Tice enters his fourth season with the Vikings and his first as the tight ends/assistant offensive line. Tice spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons as the tight ends coach and his first season with the club in 1999 as an offensive assistant.

In 2001, Tice coached tight end Byron Chamberlain, who became the first Viking player at the position to make the Pro Bowl since Steve Jordan in 1991. Chamberlain finished the season with 57 catches, which ranked fifth best in team record books and was the most since Steve Jordan also had 57 in 1988. With 666 yards receiving he also became only the third Vikings tight end to top the 600-yard mark.

In 2000, Tice coached a trio of tight ends that all started at one point during the season. Andrew Jordan (5 starts), John Davis (9) and Johnny McWilliams (8) each started at the tight end position. McWilliams with 22 catches and John Davis with 17 grabs finished 4th and 6th respectively on the club in receptions. The trio finished the season with 47 receptions. McWilliams led the tight ends with three touchdown receptions.

In '99 he worked with his brother Mike, mainly coaching the younger players on the offensive line. He also worked with the special teams' scout team and did some computer analysis.

Tice is no stranger to the National Football League, having played 10 seasons at tight end for the New Orleans Saints from 1983-92. He was originally a 3rd-round draft choice of the Saints in the 1983 NFL draft. Tice played in 134 games, starting 56, in his 10-year career. He retired in 1992 due to an injured shoulder. At the time Tice left the Saints, he was 9th on the club's all-time list for receptions (158) and 11th on the all-time list for games played (134). He also had 1,602 yards receiving and 15 touchdown receptions.

From 1985-91 Tice played in 105-of-a-possible-108 games. During a four-year stretch from 1985-88 he caught 103 passes for 1,074 yards and 12 touchdowns. Tice's best season came in '86 when he caught a career-high 37 passes for a career-high 330 yards. In '87 he had a career-high six touchdown catches on 16 receptions (37.5%).

As a senior at Maryland in 1982, Tice was selected honorable mention All-America by the Associated Press and The Sporting News. He was the leading receiver on the team as a junior and senior. As a junior Tice caught passes from his brother Mike Tice and as a senior from future NFL All-Pro Boomer Esiason. His head coach his senior season was former Detroit Lions and San Diego Chargers head coach Bobby Ross. Early in Tice's collegiate career he played center and tackle. Tice earned his bachelor's degree in 1983.

Prior to coming to the Vikings, Tice worked in Melbourne, FL in private business, he volunteered as a football coach at several high schools. Tice took over the reigns of a youth football program and was instrumental in the league tripling in size.

John Kevin Tice was born in Bayshore, NY (6/22/60) and attended Central Islip High School in Long Island where his head coach was George O'Leary, the current Vikings Defensive Line/Assistant Head Coach. His brother, Mike, was a quarterback at Maryland and played in the NFL at tight end for 14 seasons. Mike is the Vikings' head coach, making John and Mike the first brothers to ever coach with the Vikings. John and Mike combined for 265 receptions, which is 8th best all-time among brother combinations (5th among two brother combos). John and wife Barbara have five children, John Eric (1/22/85), Michael (11/21/88), Alexis (5/26/87), and twins Carly (9/23/93) and Clayton (9/23/93).

TIGHT END BREAKS LOOSE

In his first season with the Vikings in 2001 and under the tutelage of 10-year NFL veteran John Tice, Byron Chamberlain established himself as a starter, ranked 3rd on the Vikings with 57 receptions and 3 TDs, led all NFC tight ends in catches and earned a trip to the Pro Bowl.

Chamberlain became the first Vikings TE to earn a trip to the Pro Bowl since Steve Jordan following the 1991 season.

Steve Wetzel

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Since Steve Wetzel joined the Minnesota Vikings as strength and conditioning coach in 1992, the quality of his program has been evident in the team's record and number of playoff appearances. Another indicator of the job Wetzel has done in Minnesota is that three of his assistants — Mike Wolf (Philadelphia), Mark Asanovich (Tampa Bay) and Jeff Friday (Baltimore) — have gone on to become head strength and conditioning coaches with other National Football League teams.

In Wetzel's 10 seasons with Minnesota, the team finished with a winning record eight times. In '98, the team started the season with seven straight victories and ended even stronger with eight consecutive wins. The team finished with the best record in franchise history with a 15-1 record and advanced to the NFC Championship game for the first time since 1987. In '97, the Vikings had their greatest postseason comeback in team history, coming back from 16 points down to defeat the N.Y. Giants 23-22.

Over the past 10 years, the Vikings have posted one of the best regular season records (97-63, .606) in the NFL. Minnesota has won at least their last three games of the season three times since 1992 ('93-3 straight games, '98-8, '99-3). The Vikings had only accomplished that feat three other times in their first 31 seasons. Minnesota also has played well in the fourth quarter the past 10 years. The Vikings' not only have won 24 games that they trailed in the fourth quarter since '92 but are 76-12 with a lead entering the final period over the past 10 seasons.

In his 12 seasons in the NFL, Wetzel has been with teams that have gone 121-71 (.630) and made the playoffs 10 times, including '91 when he was on the coaching staff of Washington's Super Bowl XXVI Championship team. In his two seasons (1990-91) as assistant strength coach for the Redskins, the team posted a 28-9 (.757) record, including playoffs.

Before joining Washington, Wetzel spent four months as strength coach for George Mason University, the first strength coach ever hired at the University. He was the assistant strength coach at the University of Maryland from 1985-89. In his first season there, the Terrapins finished 9-2, won the Atlantic Coast Conference title and defeated Syracuse in the Cherry Bowl.

Wetzel earned his degree in physical education/sports management from Slippery Rock University, where he was a power lifter. He is a former record holder in the bench press in the American Drug Free Power Lifting Association. In '98, Wetzel received the President's Award for contributions to his profession as selected by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

A native of Washington, DC (5/11/63), Steve Wetzel attended Park View High School in Sterling, VA. Steve and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Samantha (11/1/01) and live in Eden Prairie.

Alex Wood

QUARTERBACKS

Alex Wood enters his fourth season with the Vikings and the National Football League in 2001 after a long career at the collegiate level.

In 2001, Wood oversaw three different starting quarterbacks. Starter Daunte Culpepper finished third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.2) before being sidelined with a season ending injury with four weeks to go in the season. Backup Todd Bouman was named NFL Miller Lite Player of the Week in his first career start vs. Tennessee (12/9) when he threw for 348 yards and 4 touchdowns.

In 2000, Wood tutored Culpepper into one of the best quarterbacks in the game. In Culpepper's first season as a starter he led the NFC (and tied for the NFL lead) in touchdown passes with 33. He also finished second and third respectively in the NFC in passing yards (3,937) and passer rating (98.0). Culpepper set new Vikings records for a quarterback for rushing yards (470), rushing attempts (89) and rushing touchdowns (7). For all his achievements Culpepper was named the starting quarterback for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

In '99, Wood coached starters Randall Cunningham and Jeff George, who combined to throw for 31 touchdowns and 4,291 yards. George became the first quarterback in team history to win his first five games started with the team. George finished the season with the third best quarterback ranking (94.2) in the NFL and fourth in the NFC in touchdown passes (23). The Vikings finished ranked fifth in the NFL in passing. Wood also groomed future quarterback and 1999's first-round draft choice Culpepper during his rookie season.

Wood previously was the head coach at James Madison University from 1995-98. In his first season as a head coach in '95, he led the Dukes to an 8-4 record and an appearance in the NCAA Division 1-AA Playoffs. James Madison finished with a 6-2 record in the Yankee Conference and finished the season ranked 15th nationally. Three players from the '95 squad signed with NFL teams including quarterback Mike Cawley, the team's most valuable player, who was drafted by the Indianapolis Colts in the sixth-round. In '98, James Madison lost 26-28 to the University of Massachusetts which went on to win the Division 1-AA National Championship. Wood finished his career at James Madison with 23-22 record. A pair of Wood's former JMU players are in the NFL now, Oakland WR Macey Brooks and Miami TE Ed Perry.

Prior to coming to James Madison in '95 he worked as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wake Forest from 1993-94. Wake Forest led the ACC in offense in '93 behind quarterback Rusty LaRue who went on to play with the Chicago Bulls where he was part of the 1997-98 NBA Champions.

From 1989-92, Wood coached the running backs at the University of Miami. In his four seasons there the team won two national championships (1989, 1991) and compiled a 44-4 (.917) record. In '90 the squad finished 3rd in the country and in '92 they finished 6th. Among Wood's notable players coached at Miami were future NFL players Donnell Bennett and Larry Jones.

QUALITY QB PLAY

During Alex Wood's three seasons as quarterbacks coach for the Vikings he has had Randall Cunningham, Jeff George, Daunte Culpepper, Todd Bouman and Spergon Wynn under center as the starter.

In the past three seasons, including playoffs, Vikings QBs have posted QB ratings over 100 in 36 of the 52 games. Wood has prepared his backups to step in as the starter during his tenure with the Vikings. In George's first start as a Viking after taking over for Cunningham (vs. San Francisco 1999) he posted a QB rating of 104.8 and engineered a 40-16 win. In Culpepper's first career start (vs. Chicago 2000) he led the Vikings to a 30-27 win and a QB rating of 124.1. Last season Bouman stepped in to start vs. Tennessee, leading the Vikings to a 42-24 win and a 127.1 QB rating.

Prior to the University of Miami, Wood coached tight ends at Washington State (1987-88), wide receivers and tight ends at Wyoming (1985-86) and the defensive backfield at Southern University (1982-84). At Southern he coached Michael Ball who went on to play for the Indianapolis Colts (1988-93).

Wood played at Iowa from 1975-77 where he was a running back and special teamer.

A native of Massillon, OH (3/14/55), Alex Wood attended Washington High School where he lettered twice as a running back and linebacker. He was an all-state nominee at running back. Wood also lettered twice in wrestling. He and his wife, Rosa, have three children, Jerrel (1/9/73), Alex (9/5/73) and Natalie (4/4/86).

Scott Studwell

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

After establishing himself as one of the top players in team history during his 14 seasons (1977-90) at linebacker for the Minnesota Vikings, Scott Studwell enters his 10th year in the team's Player Personnel department. He retired from his playing career after the 1990 season and spent a year as the Vikings Assistant to the President/Player Relations before being named the Player Personnel Coordinator from 1992-2001. Studwell was named to his current post as Director of College Scouting in April 2002. His new responsibilities include overseeing all college scouting efforts and preparation for the annual NFL Draft.

Studwell has been a part of successful drafts that have included Robert Smith (1st round, '93), Todd Steussie (1st, '94), David Palmer (2nd, '94), Korey Stringer (1st, '95), Orlando Thomas (2nd, '95), Dwayne Rudd (1st, '97), Randy Moss (1st, '98), Kailee Wong (2nd, '98), Matt Birk (6th, '98), Daunte Culpepper (1st, '99), Jim Kleinsasser (2nd, '99), Chris Hovan (1st, '00) and Michael Bennett (1st, '01).

A member of the Vikings' 25th and 40th Anniversary All-Time Teams, Studwell holds team records for tackles in a career (1,981), season (230 in '81) and game (24 vs. Detroit in '85), as well as solo tackles in a career (1,308). No other player in Vikings history has over 1,500 career tackles. In addition, Studwell is one of only five Minnesota players to participate in over 200 games during his career. He also played in 12 playoffs contests, including NFC Championship Games following the '77 and '87 seasons. In '87 and '88 Studwell was voted to the Pro Bowl. In '89 he was named second-team All-NFC by United Press International. He also was Minnesota's recipient of the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award in '87. After earning the starting middle linebacker job in '80, Studwell led the Vikings in tackles the next six seasons. He also was the team's leading tackler in '88 and '89. Studwell, who tied for the team lead in fumbles recovered three times ('82, '86, '88), finished his NFL career with 15 fumble recoveries and 11 interceptions.

Drafted by Minnesota in the 9th round from Illinois in '77, Studwell finished his collegiate career as the school's second all-time tackler (342) behind Dick Butkus (374). In '76 Studwell recorded 177 tackles to surpass Illinois' season record, formerly held by Butkus. As a senior Studwell recorded 23 tackles against Purdue to tie the school's single-game record.

In '90 Studwell was named to Illinois' All-Century Team, joining Butkus and Ray Nitschke as the linebackers on that squad. Studwell earned second-team All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors in '76, and second-team all-conference mention in '75. Studwell also was the team's co-captain and co-MVP in '76, when he played in the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Japan Bowl.

Scott and wife Jenny have two daughters, Jessie (2/27/86) and Samantha (9/17/87), and a son Jack (2/20/95).

STUDWELL'S STAR SHINES

Scott Studwell's mark on the Vikings organization began on the playing field where he ranks as the team's all-time leading tackler and played in a pair of Pro Bowls. In April 2002 he was promoted to the Director of College Scouting where he will oversee all college scouting for the team and preparations for the NFL Draft.

Studwell's 1,981 career tackles is more than 500 stops ahead of Matt Blair who ranks 2nd in team history. Studwell played for the Vikings from 1977-90 after being drafted in the 9th round out of Illinois where he played DT.

He played in the Pro Bowl following the 1987 and '88 seasons. Studwell (202) is one of only four Vikings position players to play in 200 career games, joining Jim Marshall (270), Mick Tingelhoff (240) and Carl Eller (209).

Paul Wiggin

DIRECTOR OF PRO SCOUTING

In over four decades as a player, coach and administrator in the National Football League, Paul Wiggin has been a part of many teams that have finished among the league's best. Wiggin is responsible for the division that evaluates all NFL players plus doing the advance scouting of the Vikings' upcoming opponents.

During his 17 years with Minnesota, the team has won five NFC Central titles and qualified for the playoffs 11 times, including 8-of-the-past-10 seasons. Wiggin originally joined the Vikings in '85 as defensive line coach, a position he held for seven seasons. During that stint, Minnesota led the league in total defense twice ('88 and '89). In '87 the Vikings advanced to the NFC Championship Game before losing 17-10 to the eventual Super Bowl Champion Washington Redskins. In '89, the Vikings posted 71 sacks, the second most in a season in NFL history. Defensive end Chris Doleman set a league season record with 21 sacks, while defensive tackle Keith Millard added 18 sacks — the third most in a season in NFL history. In addition to Doleman and Millard, Wiggin also helped develop Pro Bowl defensive tackles Henry Thomas and John Randle.

Wiggin came to Minnesota after working with the highly-successful Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee in '84. From 1980-83, Wiggin was the head coach at Stanford University, where he oversaw future NFL first-round draft choices John Elway, Darrin Nelson and Brian Holloway.

In 1978-79, Wiggin was the defensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. After not winning more than five games in any of their previous 11 seasons, the Saints posted seven victories in '78 and eight in '79.

His first head coaching opportunity came at the helm of the Kansas City Chiefs from 1975-77. Wiggin's first NFL win came in a 42-10 victory over Oakland who went on to capture the AFC West title in '75. The Chiefs won three straight and five-of-their-next seven games, including a 34-31 upset of that year's NFC Champion Dallas Cowboys on Monday Night Football at Texas Stadium.

Immediately after retiring from his playing career in '68, Wiggin became the defensive line coach in San Francisco. Despite inheriting a 49ers squad that hadn't been to the playoffs since '57, Wiggin was part of a staff that guided San Francisco to three straight division titles from 1970-72 and the NFC Championship Game in '70 and '71. During his stint there, Wiggin tutored the top two sackers (Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart) in 49ers history. Hardman also set a team season record for sacks with 18 in '71. In '74 Wiggin was promoted to defensive coordinator for San Francisco.

In 11 seasons (1957-67) as a defensive end with the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin never missed a game, playing in 146 straight regular-season games, which stood as a team record when he retired. His 18 career fumble recoveries still rank as the second most in Browns history. During his tenure there, Cleveland played in three NFL title games, including a 27-0 win over Baltimore in '64. He started in the Pro Bowl in '65 and '67. In addition, Wiggin was named the team's Outstanding Defensive Player in '63, the Browns' Player of the Year in '66 and the Cleveland Pro Athlete of the Year in '67. Most recently, Wiggin was named by Sports Illustrated's Dr. Z to the Cleveland Browns' all-time team.

The Browns drafted Wiggin as a future pick in the sixth round in '56. As a three-year starter at tackle for Stanford, Wiggin earned first-team All-PAC 10 and first-team All-America honors in both '55 and '56. Wiggin was named the Stanford Defensive Player of the Century in fan balloting. He also played rugby for the Cardinal.

A native of Modesto, CA (11/18/34), Paul David Wiggin competed in four sports and was the Most Outstanding Athlete at Manteca, CA, Union High School in '52. He also set league records in the shot put as a prepster. Wiggin earned his bachelor's degree from Stanford in '56 and his master's in education from Stanford in '59. During his off-seasons as a player, he taught high school and college classes, and coached defensive tackles at spring practice for Stanford. He and wife Carolynn have three children — Kymberly (3/22/61), Kristyn (6/6/63) and Kellie (7/4/67) — and seven grandchildren.

STACKS OF SACKS

A standout defensive lineman during his playing career at Stanford and for the Cleveland Browns, Paul Wiggin translated that knowledge into his coaching, excelling as a defensive line coach. Wiggin guided several players to the top performances of their careers.

Garnett turned his NFLE experience into making the Vikings roster in 2001, playing in 12 games and starting 2, the first NFL regular-season action of his career. While in Amsterdam, Garnett was teammates with Spergon Wynn in 2001. Other veteran Vikings who have had NFL Europe experience include P Kyle Richardson, TE Matt Cercone and LB Antonio Wilson. VIKINGS FIND GEMS AMONG UNDRAFTED ROOKIES

The Vikings scouting department has taken pride over the years in finding players who can step in and contribute that other teams have overlooked. The Vikings success rate with undrafted rookie players over the seasons is solid. Vikings Head Coach Mike Tice was himself an undrafted rookie free agent when he signed with Seattle in 1981. Tice made the switch from college QB at Maryland to an NFL TE where he went on to play in 177 career games.

The Vikings have uncovered Pro Bowl talent over the years among players who were not drafted. Former Vikings DT John Randle was considered too small by many teams when he came to the Vikings in 1990 as a rookie free agent from Texas A&M-Kingville and former Vikings S Robert Griffith was playing in the Canadian Football League when he came to the Vikings as a special teams player in 1994 and eventually worked his way into the starting lineup and a berth in the Pro Bowl. One of the greatest undrafted finds in team history was C Mick Tingelhoff. The former Nebraska star came to the Vikings in 1962 as a rookie free agent and took over the starting job at C during training camp. The offensive anchor of the Vikings Super Bowl teams went on to start 240 consecutive games.

Vikings rookie free agents who have made an impact with the team include Mick Tingelhoff, John Randle and most recently offensive lineman Cory Withrow.

FRANCHISE FOUNDED — Minnesota was granted an NFL franchise at the league owners' meetings in Miami, FL, on Jan. 28, 1960. The team began play in 1961. The founding group consisted of Max Winter, E. William Boyer, H.P Skoglund, Ole Haugsrud and Bernard H. Ridder, Jr.

ROSE NAMED GENERAL MANAGER — In late summer, 1960, former Los Angeles Rams Public Relations Director Bert Rose was named the team's first General Manager.

TEAM NICKNAMED — In one of his first moves with the team, Bert Rose recommended the nickname "Vikings" to the Board of Directors. The name was selected because it represented both an aggressive person with the will to win and the Nordic tradition in the northern Midwest.

FIRST HEAD COACH — Norm Van Brocklin is selected as the first head coach in franchise history. He retired as a player in 1960 after 12 seasons in the NFL.

FIRST COLLEGE DRAFT — On Dec. 27, 1960 running back Tommy Mason of Tulane was taken with the 1st overall choice and the first-ever draft pick utilized by the Vikings. Also selected that year were quarterback Fran Tarkenton (3rd round) and defensive back Ed Sharockman (5th round).

EXPANSION DRAFT — Following the 1960 season, the Vikings were allowed to select 3 players from the roster of each team after each team was allowed to protect 30 of their 38 players. Dallas was exempt from this process. Among the players selected were guard Grady Alderman from Detroit and running back Hugh McElhenny from San Francisco.

ASSIGNED CONFERENCE — On April 12, 1961, the National Football League assigned the Vikings to the Western Conference. Minnesota joined Baltimore, Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay, Los Angeles and San Francisco in the conference.

FIRST GAME — In the first game in franchise history, the Vikings played the Dallas Cowboys in a preseason game in Sioux Falls, SD, on Aug. 5, 1961. The Cowboys defeated the Vikings, 38-13.

FIRST HOME GAME — The Minnesota Vikings played the Los Angeles Rams at Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, MN, on Sept. 10, 1961 in the team's first game in the Twin Cities. The Rams defeated the Vikings, 21-17.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME — In a stunning upset, the Vikings defeat the Chicago Bears, 37-13, at Metropolitan Stadium in the Vikings' first NFL regular-season game on Sept. 17, 1961. Kicker Mike Mercer scored the first points in team history with a 12-yard field goal. Bob Schnelker scored the team's first touchdown on a 14-yard pass from Fran Tarkenton. In his NFL debut Tarkenton came off the bench to complete 17-of-23 passes for 250 yards and 4 touchdowns.

FIRST PRO BOWLERS — On Jan. 14, 1962 running back Hugh McElhenny and wide receiver Jerry Reichow became the first Vikings to compete in the Pro Bowl. They were part of the Western Conference All-Stars who beat the Eastern Conference squad, 31-30, at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

HOMES OF THE VIKINGS

The Vikings played their home games for 21 seasons (1961-81) at Metropolitan Stadium. The team has played its games for the last 20 seasons (1982-01) at the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the Metrodome's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule.

The Vikings have called two stadiums "home" in their 40-year history, Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington, Minnesota and the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome in Minneapolis, Minnesota. ■ On September 10, 1961, the Vikings played their first-ever home game, a 21-17 preseason loss to the LA Rams at Metropolitan Stadium. Over the next 21 years the Vikings compiled a 97-59-4 record, including playoffs, at Met Stadium and possessed one of the most dominant home field advantages in professional football. December 20, 1981 marked the last game ever played at the Met, a 10-6 loss to the Kansas City Chiefs. Capacity of the Met was 48,446 in the stadium's final year. The Vikings moved indoors in 1982 to the Metrodome in downtown Minneapolis. Seating capacity for the Metrodome is 64,121. It also features two Sony Jumbotron replay screens, 115 private suites owned and operated by the Vikings, 32 concession stands and 32 restrooms. In 19 seasons at the Metrodome the Vikings have compiled a 103-54 record, which includes a 6-4 mark in NFL playoff action. The 2002 season marks the Vikings' 21st campaign playing their home games in the Metrodome, the same length of time the Vikings played at Metropolitan Stadium. Construction of the Metrodome was financed through a successful partnership of public and private interests. Funded initially through the sale of 30-year bonds, the facility's debt was retired 14 years ahead of schedule. The Minnesota Vikings were largely responsible for the tenant-generated portion of the funding that retired that debt. ■ The Metrodome has been host to many marquee sporting events, including Super Bowl XXVI, the 1987 and 1991 World Series, the 1985 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, 1992 NCAA Final Four basketball tournament and the 1998 NFC Championship Game. The Metrodome hosted an NCAA Men's Basketball Regional in 2000 and the 2001 NCAA Men's Final Four.

MINNESOTA VIKINGS RADIO NETWORK

VOICES OF THE VIKINGS

Entering his first season as the Vikings radio play-by-play voice is KFAN-AM radio mid-day personality Paul Allen. Joining Allen in the radio booth for the 2002 Vikings season will be former Vikings tight end Joe Senser.

Allen served as the Vikings internet web cast play-by-play voice during the 2000 season and called one Vikings game during the 2001 season.

The role will be familiar for Senser, who handled Vikings color commentary in 1993-94 and again in 2001. Senser played for the Vikings from 1979-84. Senser ranks 3rd in Vikings history among tight ends for catches (165), TDs (16) and earned a berth in the Pro Bowl following the 1981 season.

Joining Allen and Senser from the sidelines and co-hosting the pre-game show will be former Vikings punter Greg Coleman. Coleman punted for the Vikings from 1978-87 and is the team's all-time leader in punts (721), punting yards (29,391), punts inside the 20 (154) and ranks 3rd in career average (40.8 yards per punt). Joining Coleman on the pre-game show will be KFAN personality Joe Anderson.

Joe Senser, Paul Allen and Greg Coleman

KFAN-AM (1130) and WLOL-FM (100.3) serve as the flagship stations for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network, which includes outlets in six states.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

Since 1984 the Ed Block Courage Awards annually honors one player from every NFL team who exemplifies commitment to the principles of sportsmanship and courage. Recipients are selected by a vote of their teammates to recognize both on and off the field extra efforts and their ability to overcome great adversity, whether it be personal or professional.

The Ed Block Courage Award has become one of the most prestigious awards a player can receive because no other national football award is chosen solely by a vote of his peers. Winners travel to Baltimore every March to receive their trophy at a gala in their honor, but the experience does not end there. During their stay, the recipients spend time at the local Courage House at St. Vincent's Center, a facility specializing in working with abused children. This visit, and the time spent with the children, allows each recipient to fully comprehend the true meaning of the award.

HOW THE VIKINGS GOT THEIR NAME

From the 1961 Minnesota Vikings Radio, TV and Press Guide-

When Bert Rose was selected as General Manager, one of the first steps he took was to recommend to the Board of Directors that the club be nicknamed the "Vikings."

A nickname should serve a dual purpose, he said. First, it should represent an aggressive person or animal imbued with the will to win. Secondly, if possible, it is desirable to have it connote the region that the particular team represents.

The "Vikings" scores well on both points. Certainly, the Nordic Vikings were a fearless race. Following many years of victories in the British Isles and France, under Erik the Red, they sailed in open boats across the North Atlantic seeking new peoples to conquer. Their entire history is punctuated with the aggressive desire and will to win.

While Minnesota is populated by the descendants of settlers from many nations, the area has a rich Nordic lore, perhaps due to the mythology of Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox, perhaps due to the preponderance of the "sons" and "sens" in the phone book. The Vikings, too, were Nordics; hence the name represents in a large part the solid stock of people who call Minnesota their home.

WINTER PARK- VIKINGS HEADQUARTERS

Dedicated in 1981, the Vikings Winter Park headquarters and training facility at 9520 Viking Drive in Eden Prairie, MN, have evolved with the times and the face of professional football. Named for former Vikings owner Max Winter, the Winter Park facility sits at the intersection of Highways 494 and 169 on Viking Drive in Eden Prairie.

Housed in the facility are the teams executive offices, coaches offices and all elements of the team's football operation including the Vikings locker room, practice fields, weight rooms, meeting rooms, athletic training facilities and cafeteria. The 3,000 square foot Vikings strength training facility features state of the art weight lifting and cardio vascular machines. The outdoor facilities include two 100-yard natural grass practice fields and a 50-yard turf field. The newest addition to the facility is a 100-yard indoor practice field that stands 90 feet tall at its apex. Built with the dual role of housing the NFC Champion Washington Redskins during Super Bowl XXV week preparations, the fieldhouse is regularly used by the team for practices and has been useful for community events and charitable endeavors.

The Vikings sales and marketing departments are located at directly across the street from Winter Park at Olympic Place, 7825 Washington Avenue, Suite 700, Bloomington, MN and can be contacted at 952-918-8500. The Vikings ticket office is at the Metrodome, 500 11th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN, and can be contacted at 612-338-4537.

This summer, don't miss the excitement as the Minnesota Vikings take on a rugged NFL pre-season schedule only on KSTP-TV, Channel 5! Led by play-by-play announcer Curt Menafee and color announcer Brian Baldinger, Channel 5 promises deep coverage as the Minnesota Vikings tune up for their regular season. Menafee and Baldinger are broadcast veterans, having been part of the FOX NFL broadcasting team for years. They'll be joined by Channel 5 Sports Director Joe Schmit, who will handle sideline color duties.

Starting with the 1st regular season game on Sept. 8, Channel 5 and the Vikings present Vikings Game Day, a weekly pre-game show at 10:30am each Sunday. Hosted by Joe Schmit and ex-Viking Mike Morris, it's an inside look at the upcoming game from the players, coaches and the fans. Featured segments include: Vintage Vikings, a look at past players and their glories; Vikings Lifestyle, an inside look at the players lives; and Flag on the Play. It's the best way to get up close and inside the Vikings on game day! Don't miss Vikings Game Day, Sundays at 10:30 am, starting September 8th on Channel 5.

Menefee is entering his 4th season calling NFL games on FOX and serves as a weekday news anchor on New York's WNYW-TV. Menefee began his NFL experience as a sideline reporter for FOX in 1997. One of New York's most popular sports-casters, Menefee won the 1996 Associated Press Award for Best Sports Reporter in New York. Menefee also has experience at stations in Jacksonville, Madison and Des Moines. He is a graduate of Coe College in Cedar Rapids, IA.

Baldinger is in his 6th season as an analyst for NFL on FOX and has covered NFL Europe action during that time as well. A former offensive lineman with the Dallas Cowboys and Philadelphia Eagles, Baldinger has a unique perspective on preseason NFL action. Signed by Dallas as an undrafted rookie in 1982 he battled his way onto the Cowboys roster. Baldinger was the lone rookie free agent from a pool of 107 rookies that earned a roster spot in 1982. He went on to play for Dallas from 1982-84 and again from '86-87. From 1988-91 Baldinger played for the Colts, earning their Most Valuable Lineman award in 1991 before finishing his playing career with the Eagles in 1992-93. A 1982 graduate of Duke, Baldinger made the transition from TE to offensive line and transferred to the Blue Devils from Nassau (NY) Community College.
